Are you living from the outside in or the inside out?

This weekend, as we reflect on the Gospel of Luke, meals provide a central setting and theme for Jesus' unique mission. There are more references to eating, banquets and being at table in Luke than in any other gospel. The language of food, in general, serves as a sign of life, celebration and fellowship. Jesus reminds us that real discipleship is about living from the inside out, not the outside in. This means that we must be aware of what is going on inside ourselves, for we will surely project that onto the world. Jesus taught that our inner lives determine the direction of our outer lives, the quality of our relationships, the choices we make, the priorities we establish, and the actions we take.

Living from the outside in was commonplace in the Greco-Roman society in which Jesus lived. Jesus challenged the cast system embedded in this first-century culture. This system taught that it was appropriate to only invite friends, family and rich neighbors in or above one's social class, but never below. The belief was that reciprocal requests would ensue. Jesus calls into question this type of cast system, imagining instead hosts who choose to associate with people who are "poor, crippled, lame and blind" as their new network. Living from the outside in occurs today whenever the outside world dictates what happens on our inside. This can take many forms: having your entire day ruined any time something inconvenient or unfavorable happens to you; feeling bored or totally lost unless you're stimulated or entertained at all times; having your emotions completely dictated by your relationships; and lacking any sense of who you are or what you want. No matter how it shows up, outside in living isn't the only way to live.

As social creatures, Jesus understood that human beings are naturally influenced by their relationships and that nature compels us to take cues from the outside world in order to effectively navigate our lives; but this doesn't mean we have to relinquish control. Jesus taught that it was possible to gain command over one's own internal experience by beginning to live from the inside out. This is a lifetime's work. Jesus believed that turning inward and tuning in to our inner experience can help us begin to respond to the outside world in different, perhaps more empowering ways, and a more centered sense of command over our life.

Let us pray for more peace and more possibilities: Heavenly Father, I ask that you would change me from the inside out. I ask, Lord that you would release grace, mercy and power from heaven for me to pursue you with vigor and passion. I ask, Lord, that you would renew my mind and heal my heart. I ask to know you, to see you, to behold you in all your glory. I ask that you guide me by your Spirit in every step I take so that I can be all that you created me to be. Fill my heart with your love and guide my desires to become the same as the desires that you have for me. Show me the ways I can best serve you. I invite you into every interaction I have today. May your love shine through me every day. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Here are some reflective questions on living from inside out rather than from the outside in:

- Why have so many of us learned to live our life the wrong way around?
- Who is someone you know that wears humility well?
- In what tangible ways do they wear it well? Pick one way you can "put on" humility this week. In what area are you most likely to struggle with humility?
- Where do you tend to judge other people the most?
- In what ways are you overly self-focused, either with anxiety, pride, insecurity, self-promotion, or worry?
- Is there any area in your life where you insist on going your own way and are unwilling to walk in humble obedience to the Lord?
- What in your life is competing with obedience to God or the duties He has given you?
- Is there someone in your life you need to actively consider more important than yourself?
- How can you seek to humbly show preference to that person over your own desires or wants?

Preparing for Next Week...

Watch our weekly SCC reflection @ <https://www.youtube.com/user/HFInverness/videos>.
Click on reflections for Sunday Readings for 9-8-19 and listen to Fr. Terry Keehan reflect on the readings.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. As we hear in Wisdom, how can we “discern what the Lord wills?”
2. When have you felt the guidance of the Holy Spirit in giving or receiving wisdom?
3. Onesimus was Philemon’s runaway slave who Paul converted. Paul then works to alter the relationship between master and slave. When have you worked to alter the relationship between two people for the better?
4. In the Gospel, Jesus clearly explains the cost of following Him as a disciple. What may He be asking of us? How well are you doing?
5. Jesus said: “none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.” How can we reconcile this statement with our daily life and needs?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

What is it going to cost you to live out the Gospel message? Are you willing to sacrifice some material wealth to acquire spiritual wealth? What challenges will you face?

The summer has been very productive around our large campus with many projects, both scheduled and unscheduled, started and almost all completed. Many of the projects you will not notice or experience, unless you were here in the hottest days in June and July when one of the several air conditioning systems stopped working. You will also be comfortable this winter when the building requires heat and you can relax knowing the various systems have been serviced.

Our crack maintenance crew has painted, cleaned, repaired and serviced throughout the building and noticeably in our large meeting rooms. One of our parishioners generously gave of their time and talent and cleaned the carpet in the Church.

As you drive on to the campus, take a moment to notice the exterior of the building. We have been painting various grates and A/C units, cleaning, and clearing and updating the landscape. The farmhouse was painted this summer and the landscape has been trimmed and pruned to better represent our beautiful facility. We have many new plantings scheduled for installation in the latter half of September. All of this is the result of contributions from a few of our generous parishioners. We thank them for their leadership and guidance in the various outdoor projects.

Over the next few months we will provide you more in-depth detail regarding completed projects, finances and budgets, as well as changes implemented to continue to reduce our expenses.

What past participants have said:

- ◆ This was the most beautiful, meaningful, life-changing retreat I have ever been a part of. I feel a very special bond not only with the people at my table but at those very special people who shared their life experiences with all of us. I feel that I learned to trust in the love of God. He's got me! Thank you to the Beloved Team each and every one of you, you are special and loved. I also feel loved.
- ◆ Preaching the limitless, abundant love of God for us is essential to grasping the mystery of how God regards us, His creation. You fleshed out the idea that baptism is a verb, not a noun. I believe this retreat will motivate me to go to the next level of practicing my faith with a stronger action component.
- ◆ You can never go around what you've got to go through. Not a single one of my circumstances has changed, but I have! I came here literally shaking and am leaving with the most joyful heart and biggest smile.

Slow Me Down, Lord!

By Wilfred A. Peterson

Slow me down, Lord!
Ease the pounding of my heart
By the quieting of my mind.
Steady my harried pace
With a vision of the eternal reach of time.

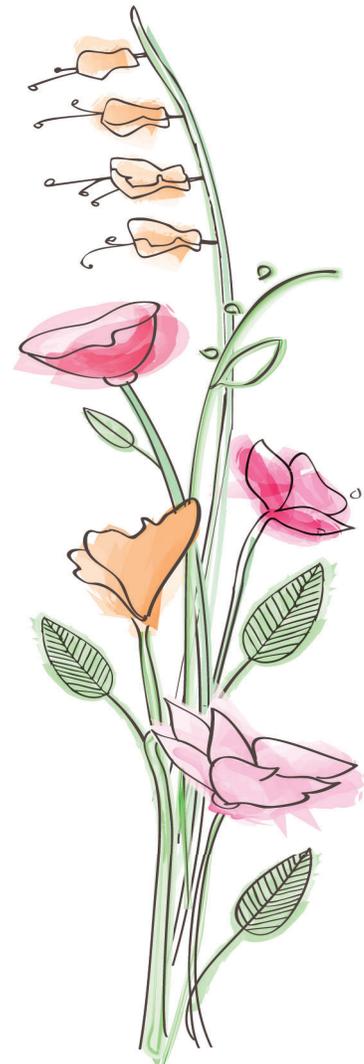

Give me,
Amidst the confusions of my day,
The calmness of everlasting hills,
Break the tensions of my nerves
With the soothing music of singing streams
That live in my memory.

Help me to know
The magical power of sleep.
Teach me the art
Of taking minute vacations of slowing down
To look at a flower;
To chat with an old friend or make a new one;
To pat a stray dog;
To watch a spider build a web;
To smile at a child;
Or to read a few lines from a good book.
Remind me of each day
That the race is not always to the swift;
That there is more to life than increasing it's speed.

Let me look upward
Into the branches of the towering oak
And know that it grew great and strong
Because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord,
And inspire me to send my roots deep
Into the soil of life's enduring values
That I may grow towards the stars
Of my greater destiny.

*It's a busy time
of year...
Remember to pray!*

Imagine the Possibilities. . . and the Faith programs we could create

Working together

Leading together

Our current Faith programs are good – at least that’s what our children, teens and parents say. Indeed many of our parents and catechists say they are better than good, a far cry from their own experiences of Religious Education and many say they are improving. That’s good news. And there is more than talk backing up those claims.

- 100 new students have already registered for the coming year.
- Our Adam’s Apple enrollment increased dramatically last year and will again this year.
- Our catechist retention rate is high, double the national average
- Parent participation has increased every year over the past three (and doubled last year).
- Our Teen Faith program is one of the largest and most active in the Archdiocese, and indeed in the country, drawing 400+ teens annually.
- The numbers of teens that remain active in parish life after Confirmation is triple the national average.

we will grow and offer new and better programs

To accomplish this right now we need

Parents

- To register their children/teens in Faith Classes NOW.
- to sign-up to participate as volunteers in the programs
- to attend the opening Parent Meeting on Sept. 9 (am or pm)

Catechists & Peer Ministers

Our Outdoor Classroom is Abuzz!

Not only does our pollinator garden and restored native prairie attract birds, bees, and butterflies, but there's nothing quite like the sounds of our students enjoying God's creation in the beautiful end of summer weather!

HFCA is blessed to have a nationally certified outdoor classroom that inspires creativity and collaboration. It is truly a special place that nurtures our students' minds, bodies, and souls.

The Human Concerns Community...

offers assistance with life's basic needs, spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

Do you want to learn more about the Human Concerns Community and/or have suggestions to enhance and improve current ministries and programs? Join me, Sue Geegan, the Director of Human Concerns, for a light dinner and conversation Tuesday, September 10 from 6:30 to 8pm. This will be a small group of no more than 10 people to allow us to get better acquainted and ensure everyone has time to share ideas. Additional sessions will be scheduled on a regular basis.

If you are interested in joining me, please call 847-907-3443 or email sgeegan@holymfamilyparish.org by Friday, September 6th to secure a place at the table. This will not be a session for griping or complaining. If you have concerns, you can always reach me at the contacts above.

Holy Family's Human Concerns Annual Report

The 2018-2019 Human Concerns Annual Report is available on the social justice wall in the west coat room. More than 15,000 hours of service were given to Holy Family ministries and other community events over the past fiscal year. Please take a copy and see all the works of charity, mercy and justice our parishioners generously provide to so many people, especially those who are disadvantaged.

Thank you to all who have given time, talent and treasure impacting thousands of lives for the better. God Bless!

CATHOLIC EXTENSION SOCIETY'S HOLY FAMILY FUND

This past Lent, Holy Family raised almost $37,000 to support immigrant families facing a crisis such as a wage earner being deported. The week of August 5th, immigrants living in the Diocese of Jackson, Miss were impacted by raids. Bishop Joseph Kopacz called the raids "a man-made disaster. These folks are our neighbors, the vast majority are not criminals. They are hard-working people." The first distribution from the Holy Family Fund was made to the Diocese of Jackson to provide aid and support to the families now dealing with this tragic situation. Please keep them in your prayers.

Human Concerns

Most Rev. John R. Manz Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago

Over Labor Day weekend, I invite you to reflect on the tenets of our faith that proclaim that all workers have sacred worth and, therefore, they deserve dignity and respect. Catholic Social Teaching further instructs us that all workers should have safe work conditions and family-sustaining wages. Yet, as we know, the income gap between the wealthiest and poorest among us continues to grow, resulting in many of our hard-working families living below the poverty line.

In response to the growing income inequality around us, Pope Francis recently instructed, "We can no longer wait to solve the structural causes of poverty, to heal our society from a sickness that can only lead to new crises. Markets and financial speculation should not enjoy absolute autonomy. Unless we solve the problems of the poor we shall not resolve the world's problems. We need programs, mechanisms and processes that lead to a better distribution of resources, the creation of jobs and all-around promotion of those who are excluded."

Over this holiday weekend I hope you will reflect on how we as Catholics are called upon to end the exploitation of workers. The Archdiocese is proud to be a partner with Arise Chicago, a 28 year-old interfaith organization that boasts Msgr. Jack Egan as one of its co-founders. Arise teaches workers their rights, builds leadership skills, and advocates for public policy changes – all of which transform lives and communities. www.arisechicago.org This weekend, in partnership with the Chicago Federation of Labor (CFL), Arise Chicago has prepared speakers in over 100 services, lifting up the sacred link between work and faith.

As a part of our Labor Day reflection, we need to turn away from the idolatry of wealth that can deceive us into believing that we are self-sufficient, and instead embrace the truth that we are all divinely connected to each other. We cannot live in a world without car mechanics, shoe salespersons, teachers, hotel workers, grocery store clerks, nurses, etc. I invite you to honor through your prayers and actions the dignity of workers, especially those who you encounter in your daily interactions. Reflect on how each of us, through our work, contribute our unique God-given gifts to the common good of humanity. Hold in prayer all of those longing for jobs and all of those who labor under poor working conditions. Our interconnectedness in faith and our dependence on each other in life give us a lot to celebrate together! Blessed Labor Day!

Sincerely,

Bishop John R. Manz
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago

VIRTUS - Protecting God's Children Offered at Holy Family on Monday, Sept 9 2019 And Wednesday, Sept 18

Class starts promptly at 6:30pm & concludes at approximately 9:30pm.

Since 2004 all adult volunteers who work with children have attended the Virtus - Protecting God's Children training. The Protecting God's Children program is designed to raise awareness about the nature of child sexual abuse, to educate on how to recognize the warning signs, and to train about what to do when we suspect a child is being victimized.

It is also important for all of us to join together to build a society where children are no longer at risk of being sexually abused, where those who have been victimized can find the resources and courage to heal, and where all people live together in loving, supportive relationships.

To register for one of these sessions or a session at another location, visit www.virtusonline.org and click on the First-Time Registrant button on the left side of the homepage. Let's join together and help to keep all of God's children safe!
