

Morning Prayer III

As this day begins
refocus my vision,
away from self, that small place I inhabit, to the beauty that surrounds me in the places I will go the faces of all those I meet.

Open my senses to the wonders of the natural world and know they are gifts to embrace.

Inspire me to acts of kindness, generosity

Amen
