I Believe that God Wants to Be With Us

I believe that God has hopes and desires for all of humanity, each and every one of us. One way that I articulate my own sacramental theology is based on the desires and hopes that God has for us. I believe that God wants us to be welcomed into an experience of faith that is beyond just us personally. I believe God wants us to be welcomed into the community of the Church, SO...we have the Sacrament of Baptism. I believe that God wants to forgive us, SO...we have the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I believe that God wants to have our faith affirmed and confirmed at a time in life when we are able to make our faith more of our own, SO...we have the Sacrament of Confirmation. I believe that God wants to heal us physically and spiritually, SO... we have the Anointing of the Sick.

Two of the Sacraments may not be for everyone, but God's desire for us to have long term, committed love relationships that generate family through their fruitfulness is manifest in the Sacrament of Marriage. And God has a desire for some to make lifelong commitments to leadership in the Church, SO...we have the Sacrament of Priesthood.

I also believe that God's STRONGEST desire is to be with us in a very real way. First, God gave himself to us in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ to be with us in love, and then Jesus' desire to be with us FOREVER is manifest in the greatest Sacrament, THE EUCHARIST.

God wants to be with us...so we believe that he became one of us and Jesus fulfills the eternal Covenant of God's presence with us in countless ways, but the most significant, I believe, is in the Eucharist.

God's desires for us preceded Jesus, obviously, and it is in this vein that we might have a greater appreciation for the connection between the first reading this weekend from the 2nd Book of Samuel and our Gospel passage from Luke.

The first reading tells us that King David, through God's prompting, comes to a really significant insight. He is living in a royal house made of fine cedar, and God is dwelling in the Ark of the Covenant, which is a temporary dwelling. The human king lives in a beautiful strong secure house. The real KING is basically in a motor home.

God has a desire to be with us, to make a permanent home with us. The Ark of the Covenant contained the Ten Commandments and signified God's Law. God wanted to work through David to establish a permanent home with us.

As Christians, then, we believe that Mary provided that dwelling. She bore and nurtured Jesus as the King and provided a home for God in us. As Jesus was born into this world he established himself with us forever, and Mary was the special dwelling that made the manifestation of God's love, for us and WITH us, possible. Joseph her husband was a descendent of the King, David, and so God's desire to be with us is foretold and the point of much prophecy; that prophesy we believe is fulfilled in Mary.

This is one of the most significant links in the Judeo-Christian story that tells us of our connection with a God who wants to be connected with us.

Our Gospel this weekend tells us the Angel Gabriel appears to Mary and announces that she will conceive and bear a son from the lineage of King David, but that the child she will bear will be the savior of the world, and his kingdom "...will have no end."

Not only does God want to be with us, God wants to be with us forever. Mary gives birth to forever, and is such a significant vessel for all of humanity to bear Christ forever.

God has found a home in us. God's desire to be with us is once again made holy by the retelling of David's insight and Mary's simple yes to a mysterious message from God.

A God who wants to be with us...forever.

The Adult Faith
Community... supports the mission of lifelong learning by providing educational,
spiritual, and formational activities for the parish and the community.

On December 1, almost 90 people joined together on Zoom with Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson to kick off a powerful Advent season filled with the HOPE that God is with us, even in our chaos! Our God stands beside us (In Crisis, Christ IS) and walks with us. We have seen so many examples of Holy Family friends being Christ for one another in these difficult days. From dropping off care packages to those who are alone to providing Zoom meetings to visit with the homebound. Little surprises are popping up everywhere... and hearts are growing during this time of separation.

Thanks to all who attended this wonderful evening, and to all who have taken the message with them and found ways to give a little light to someone who is in darkness right now.

Advent blessings to ALL!

Tune in with Terry

We will be taking a break during the month of November from our Tune in with Terry sessions. We invite you to mark your calendar for our December sessions:

Wednesday, December 30, 2020 at 7:00pm –
A discussion about Epiphany

If you haven't joined us for Tune in with Terry yet, it is a short presentation by Fr. Terry followed by relaxed and "come as you are" conversation on the topic of the night. We have found that this allows for great community time and a little freedom from all the things weighing us down. Please plan to attend and let's focus on the HOPE that comes at Christmas.

To register and receive your Zoom link, contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org

Stay tuned...Our Bible Journey program will return in January with one of our "back by demand" speakers, Elizabeth Nagel!

Bible Journey 2021

We are continuing with our tradition of offering Scripture study programs on weekday mornings through our Bible Journey program. This fall we enjoyed a beautiful program on the Psalms led by our own fabulous Anne Madsen. We are meeting on Zoom and we welcome all to join us. There is no fee for this program this year, but we appreciate your donations to Holy Family and encourage all of you to become electronic givers to help keep the work of the parish going strong! Please call our main office line at 847-359-0042 and ask for our finance office if you would like to begin donating electronically or visit our website.

Stay tuned for topic details on our January program with a returning favorite, Elizabeth Nagel, Ph.D. We look forward to exciting learning opportunities ahead!

If you would like to be added to our email list for any Scripture study offerings, please contact Mary Whiteside at mwhiteside@holyfamilyparish.org.

Create Family traditions and memories that will last a lifetime!

Advent is traditionally an important time at Holy Family for Faith Families, with Bethlehem Market and the Christmas Eve children's Mass, being the highlights of the season. This year, social distancing due to the pandemic will challenge the very traditions so many look forward to -- and especially the traditions that many need after the year we've had

Be bold; be inventive this Advent

# 1 Attend Holy Family's First Annual Christmas Tree Lighting – tonight, Sunday, Dec. 13 from 5-5:30 pm.

#2 Advent Sidewalk Art. People of all ages like to create with chalk and look at sidewalk chalk art, and it can be used to share the message with others — so why not give a gift to your neighbors this year of Advent Sidewalk Art. Make it a neighborhood project.

# 3 – Create a Christ the Light Walkway- Line your front walk driveway with luminaries for the Fourth Sunday of Advent or Christmas Eve – displaying your belief in Christ as the light of the world.

#4 Sign up for Catholic Brain's free Advent program – great interactive on-line resource for Catholic kids with songs, games, animated videos, and Bible stories for the season of Advent/Christmas www.catholicbrain.com/campaign/1172954/2020adventprogram

# 5 Use Christmas Cards as Prayer Reminders - As Christmas cards arrive during December, place them in a basket in a noticeable area. Once a day, pull out one card and pray for that person or family together.

Catholic Social Teaching – United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict. For more information visit – www.usccb.org

In the spirit of Solidarity, Fr. Richard Rohr shares his thoughts: “While we can be grateful for any freedoms and privileges protected by our national governments, we cannot allow them to claim that they are themselves the foundational source of those rights. That role belongs to God! Our love and respect for human dignity must be extended to people of all nations, not just our own. I wrote this prayer almost ten years ago on the anniversary of the September 11 attacks. We need the grace of universal solidarity to join the One God in our ever-expanding love for the world”:

God of all races, nations, and religions,
You know that we cannot change others,
Nor can we change the past.
But we can change ourselves.
We can join You in changing our only
And common future where Love “reigns”
The same over all.
Help us not to say, “Lord, Lord” to any nationalist gods,
But to hear the One God of all the earth,
And to do God’s good thing for this One World.
