Vision Statement

Holy Family Catholic Community invites all to new life in Christ. Our response to God's call is evident through full, conscious and active participation in our community.

Mission Statement

To empower all to experience New Life In Christ through sacramental living, transformative worship, lifelong spiritual growth and community in service to others.

Core Values

Animated by our faith in God to evangelize, we live the following core values:

- Integrity
- Excellence
- Unity
- Service
- Justice

Welcome to Holy Family

Holy Family Catholic community invites all to new life in Christ. Are you new to Holy Family? Are you considering becoming a registered parishioner? We welcome you to become part of our holy family in carrying out our mission. Go to the website or contact Sue at sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org or 847-907-3443 to register.

Saint Paul says, "We are the Body of Christ." We look forward to experiencing that reality with you.

Fr. Terry Keehan, Pastor

Lenten Theme

We mark time in many ways. We use it to usher in the future, saying things like, "It's time to eat, time to go to work, time to go to bed," and many more times for...

Our Lenten theme this year gives the ushering in of the future a sense of urgency. You will be hearing Now is the Time for ... A LOT this Lent.

This statement comes from the second reading proclaimed this Ash Wednesday from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians (6:1-2).

Paul appeals to us not to receive the grace of God in vain, assuring us that God hears us in an acceptable time and helps us on the day of salvation. For greater emphasis and grounding all that we should prepare for, Paul continues, "NOW is the very acceptable time; NOW is the day of Salvation."

The sub themes of each week of this coming Lent will complete the initial statement:

- NOW is the time for CHANGE
- NOW is the time to LISTEN
- NOW is the time to turn from greed to SOCIAL JUSTICE
- NOW is the time to BELIEVE
- NOW is the time to be SERVANT LEADERS

Beginning NOW, this week, with urgency for change, we are challenged to go deeper in experiencing change, to retrieve its original meaning. The type of change Paul is speaking of is Metanoia, indicating a truly transformative change, a change of heart, a spiritual conversion.

Lent is a season calling us to this type of change.

Let us share a deep spiritual journey together this Lent because... NOW is the time.

Solidarity

As we have done in recent Lents, we will be highlighting the importance of Catholic Social Teaching and in particular this year the principle of SOLIDARITY. We are one human family, whatever our differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers. At the core of Solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace.

As always, scripture guides us in Solidarity as Psalm 122 tells us, "Peace be with you! For the sake of the Lord I will seek your good."

In his encyclical Laudato Si, Pope Francis says, "We need to strengthen the conviction that we are one single human family... There are no frontiers or barriers, political or social, behind which we can hide, still less is there room for the globalization of indifference."

This year we will extend SOLIDARITY to and with our neighbors at St. Joseph's Home for the Elderly and The Little Sisters of the Poor in Palatine. St. Joseph's Home has been a partner of ours for many years and beginning in week three of Lent we will hear more specifics of how we can help the Sisters and more fully live the principle of SOLIDARITY.

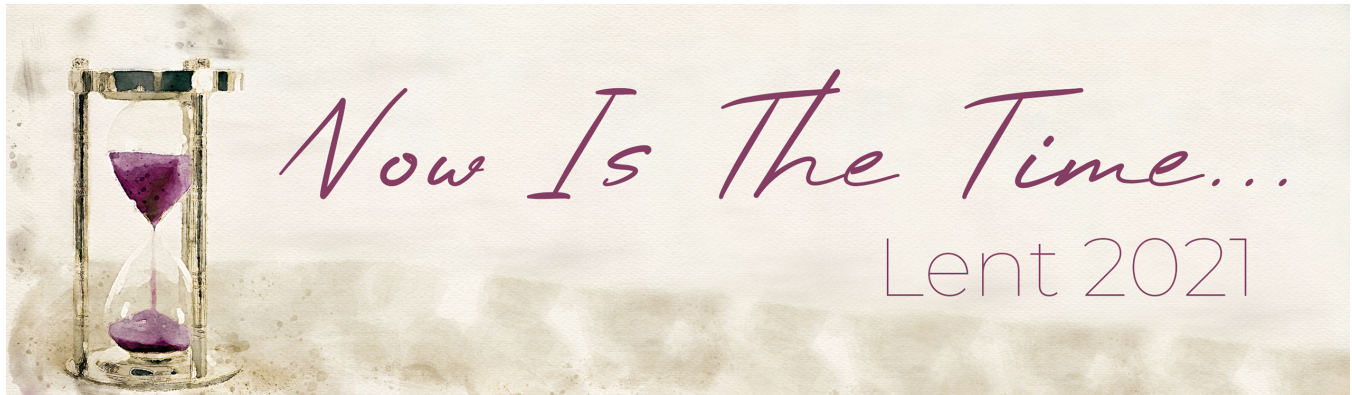

Please see Sue Geegan's article in this bulletin for more details on SOLIDARITY and our Lenten Social Justice projects.

Service of Remembrance and Light

Join us this Sunday at 6:00pm in the west parking lot and pray from your car, via your radio for the many who have died from Coronavirus. Our good friend, Dawn Mayer, will offer a reflection during the short service.

Job Opportunity – Bookkeeper

We have an opening for a part-time bookkeeper here at Holy Family. The position is for 24 hours per week that can be scheduled over 3-4 days. Please see our website under Employment Opportunities for more details.

THE PASCHAL SEASON 40/3/50

ALL THE DAYS, from Ash Wednesday to Pentecost, are our Paschal (Passover) Season. The 40 days of Lent and the 50 days of Eastertime surround the Triduum, along with the Great Three Days from Holy Thursday evening through Easter Sunday evening. This entire season has a unity centered in the Easter Vigil. It is expressed through our Lenten theme - Now Is the Time, and continued celebration of baptismal death and resurrection in Christ during Eastertime.

Together we experience A Very Acceptable Time for change during Lent so that we might come to celebrate The Day of Salvation during Easter and, in turn, go forth at Pentecost in the power of the Spirit to transform the world.

Lent has a twofold theme of Baptism (both recalling and preparing for) and repentance.

Another word for repentance is conversion. Both of these words are from the Greek word, metanoia, best defined as “change of heart/change of mind/change of perspective.” This Lent we are challenged to recognize that Now Is The Time to go “beyond our mind,” to a new way of seeing ourselves as beloved Children of God. Now Is The Time to see that each of us is a new creation literally loved into being by God, in Christ, and celebrated in Baptism.

While Lent is serious, it is never sad. It is a “spiritual spring,” a joyful season of conversion and a turning toward the Gospel. Due to the Lenten focus on Baptism, those preparing to celebrate the initiation sacraments are our companions on the journey toward Easter. Whether they are

RCIA participants preparing to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation at the Easter Vigil, or second-graders and high school students preparing to celebrate First Eucharist and Confirmation during the Easter season, all of us are reflecting, reconciling, and changing in response to “Now Is The Time.”

There is also a strong social justice element to Lent. The prophet Isaiah reminds us: “This is the fasting that (God wishes); releasing those bound unjustly...setting free the oppressed...sharing your bread with the hungry, sheltering...the homeless.” This season we will focus on the Catholic Social Teaching of Solidarity; Now Is The Time to see ourselves as one human family.

As we embark on our Lenten 2021 journey, let us remember...

“Behold, now is a very acceptable time; now is the day of salvation”
- 2 Corinthians 6:2

Lenten Mission 2021 Lenten Spiritual Practices During the Pandemic Wednesday, March 10, 2021 at 7:00 pm

In these stressful times we often begin or end our greetings to one another with, "Take care of yourself." Yes! But also, strange as it may sound, we should allow our spirits connected to the Divine Spirit to take care of us. The mission of Spirit is to enter into our minds, bodies, and social relationships and fill them with passion, pleasure, and purpose. But we have to engage in spiritual practices for that to happen. Let's talk about it this Lent with Jack Shea, S.T.D., theologian, storyteller and speaker of international repute. He has written several books, the most recent is To Dare the Our Father: A Transformative Spiritual Practice. Please join us via Webinar. Contact Marsha Adamczyk to register - madamczyk@holymfamilyparish.org

Evening Bible Study "The Art of Spiritual Reading of the Psalms" Presented by Elizabeth Nagel, Ph.D. March 4, 11, 18 and 25, 2021 (6:30-7:30 pm) No charge for this program

This program was offered in the mornings with our Bible Journey group and it was so well received that we decided to ask Dr. Nagel to return for those who might not be available during the day! We will meet on Zoom and Bible Journey friends are welcome to join in even if they took this class in the morning as there will be some new Psalms added in for discussion. ## 1st Week of Lent Now is the time for Change

Director
847-907-3443
sgeegan
@holymfamilyparish.org

The Human Concerns Community... offers assistance with
life's basic needs,
spiritual and emotional support as well as additional resources with partners in our community while promoting mercy and justice by putting our faith into action.

We are living in a time that is challenging to our faith practice and our ability to see one another as God's children. Instead of drawing ourselves to one another in our common goodness, we stand as witnesses to increased divisiveness. Our Catholic social teaching on Solidarity states:

"We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Learning to practice the virtue of solidarity, learning that "loving our neighbor" has global dimensions in an interdependent world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace." USCCB.org

"Before all else, let us begin by acknowledging that change is needed. . . . Do we truly realize that something is wrong in a world where there are so many farmworkers without land, so many families without a home, so many laborers without rights, so many persons whose dignity is not respected? Do we realize that something is wrong where so many senseless wars are being fought and acts of fratricidal violence are taking place on our very doorstep? Do we realize something is wrong when the soil, water, air and living creatures of our world are under constant threat? So, if we do realize all this, let's not be afraid to say it: we need change; we want change." Pope Francis (7/9/15, Popular Movements)

Personal reflection: What change do you feel is most needed in our world today? What change is needed in your life to affect the common good for all people? Just as the Little Sisters of the Poor care for the disadvantaged elderly, who do you look up to as a role model who serves selflessly for others?

Lenten Social Justice Project

This Lent, Holy Family will live out the Catholic social teaching of Solidarity more intentionally by supporting The Little Sisters of the Poor at the St Joseph's Home for the Elderly in Palatine.

The Little Sisters of the Poor are an international congregation of Roman Catholic women religious founded in 1839 by Saint Jeanne Jugan. Together with a diverse network of collaborators, they serve the elderly poor in over 30 countries around the world.

Continuing the work of Saint Jeanne Jugan, their MISSION is to offer the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home where they will be welcomed as Christ, cared for as family and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to himself.

Their VISION is to contribute to the Culture of Life by nurturing communities where each person is valued, the solidarity of the human family and the wisdom of age are celebrated, and the compassionate love of Christ is shared with all.

The COVID pandemic has profoundly challenged the Little Sisters and they require assistance with in-kind and financial donations to support their residents. An in-kind collection of much needed items will take place beginning March 7th. This list of specific items will be shared next week. Additional information about the work of the Little Sisters will be shared each week in the bulletin and on the Lenten Social Justice page of Holy Family's website.

Thank you, in advance, for your participation and compassion as we strive to live more fully in Solidarity with all people especially during this time of Lent.
