Pentecost

There is a difference between identifying what we need to do in life and what the Lord asks us to do. Pentecost is a dramatic unfolding of the Ascension when Jesus commissions the disciples and us to go out into the entire world, even to every creature – to baptize and witness. Pentecost then ushers in the Holy Spirit upon us, the church, not simply to make a difference, but to do what God asks us to do. Being able to speak different languages was just a start for the disciples, and for us.

WISDOM, UNDERSTANDING, RIGHT JUDGEMENT, KNOWLEDGE, COURAGE, REVERENCE, WONDER AND AWE IN GOD'S CREATION are not simply gifts we receive from the Holy Spirit; they are what we should demonstrate – because the Lord has commissioned us to do so. Remember the acronym W U R K C R W.

Please give some thought to completing these statements as your time permits this week.

I will demonstrate WISDOM by ...

I will demonstrate UNDERSTANDING by ...

I will demonstrate RIGHT JUDGEMENT by...

I will demonstrate KNOWLEDGE by ...

I will demonstrate COURAGE by ...

I will demonstrate REVERENCE by ...

I will demonstrate WONDER AND AWE IN GOD'S CREATION by ...

On Another Note...

I will offer a monetary reward to anyone who will share information regarding the destruction of the St. Joseph statue on the south end of the property near the pond.

AT THE TABLE: COMMUNION AND DISMISSAL

Deacon Dennis Brown offers an answer to this week's At the Table series question: Why do we say, "The Mass never ends," at the end of Mass?

The prescribed wording for the dismissal is "The Mass is ended," but it is our tradition at Holy Family to say "The Mass never ends, go in peace to love and serve the Lord, and each other." But, before I address the reason for this, I'd like to begin with a reflection on the Communion Rite and its relationship to the Dismissal.

It's vitally important that we fully understand the meaning of the term "Body of Christ." Almost all Catholics recognize the consecrated bread as the Body of Christ and the consecrated wine as the Blood of Christ. Some, however, seem to have missed the connection between this Body of Christ in the sacramental elements of bread and wine, and what we call the mystical Body of Christ, the community of the Church.

This is not a new problem in the Church. In 1 Corinthians 11:29, St. Paul insists that "all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves." St. Augustine once chastised his church for trying to decapitate Christ. He said they thought they could have the head of the body (Christ) without the rest of the body (the church), but that is not possible. So, while this is not a new problem, it is a crucial one. Too many of us miss both the beauty and the challenge of this mystery. The sacramental body and the mystical body are intimately intertwined. An understanding of the Eucharist that focuses on one half of this mystery while ignoring the other half is inadequate. Another quotation from St. Augustine emphasizes this link between the sacramental body and the ecclesial body of Christ when, preaching about the Eucharist, he said, "Receive what you are, be what you receive." He reminds us that we who receive the Body of Christ are the Body of Christ. Another way of saying this is that during the Communion Rite, the Body of Christ offers the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ. Even the word "Communion" means "union with." It speaks of a shared union of all those who are part of Christ's body and that the primary effect of the Eucharist is the unity of the body of Christ. When we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, we become more fully the Body of Christ in the world today.

It is this understanding of the Communion Rite that brings us to the Dismissal Rite. As I indicated in the beginning, the simple formula is "The Mass has ended." Unfortunately this English translation does not adequately express its original meaning in Latin. The Latin, Ite, missa est, is literally translated as "Go, it is the missa"; that is, "Go, it is the sending" or "Go, you are sent." Being sent means that we are to carry on the mission of the Church. In this sense, the dismissal from the liturgy is not really an ending; it is a beginning. In fact, the Mass itself is about being sent and it, indeed, never ends. What we have celebrated together, we are sent forth to live out during the week. We are sent to be the Body of Christ.

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for May 30, The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, and then reflect on these questions:

The Liturgical Arts
Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences,
for all attending Holy Family.

1. Moses reminds his people that they have witnessed the power and wonder of God. What have you experienced that has led you to believe in the one, true God?
2. As a community of faith, how did we see God's presence during Covid?
3. Paul describes us as heirs of the Spirit, of God and of Christ. What does this mean to you? How do you see yourself as an heir?
4. Jesus has commissioned us to "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations." To fulfill this commission, what is our responsibility at Holy Family, and personally?
5. How do you think about the concept of the Holy Trinity to yourself? How might it differ if trying to explain the concept to a non-believer?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

Working to change unjust systems can be difficult and challenging. Jesus says "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." How does this statement impact your work for racial justice?

Sunday 11:00am Mass

Our Sunday 11:00 am Mass will resume
every week beginning on June 6.

Please remember that you will still need to register to attend (via our website) until further notice.

Volunteer Opportunities

We have an urgent need for Ushers and Greeters for Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals! Weddings are on Friday evenings and Saturdays and are always scheduled in advance. Funerals are mid-morning and, obviously, not planned far in advance. Baptisms are scheduled in advance twice a month at 11:00 am on Sunday mornings during April and May and beginning in June the time will change to 1:00 pm.

You can sign up to serve for one ministry or multiple ministries.
For more information on this opportunity please visit the website.

Choices Matter

The choices we make, shape our experience of life and influence others. Often choices can have a ripple effect, which are not immediately apparent.

The choices we make for our children, help shape and define them, in both expected and surprising ways.

Faith is both gift and choice.

Authentic religious faith and healthy spiritual practices are pathways that lead to encounters with divine love. These encounters connect us to something larger than ourselves, helping us put things into perspective. They help us connect (or reconnect) with the transformative power of divine love, diminishing fear and increasing ones sense of self-esteem and well-being.

As Catholic parents we have received the gift of God's friendship, revealed most fully in the person of Jesus Christ. Having been baptized, we were filled with the Holy Spirit, and recognized as followers of Jesus, members of the Body of Christ. It is an inheritance we can choose to pass on to our children through the sacrament of Baptism followed by consistent and on-going religious education.

Baptizing a child is not something we do to our children. It is not a one-time event, fixed in time and space. Having a child baptized is a deeply personal choice and a public declaration of faith we make on behalf of our child. Its power unfolds over time, as we share our experiences of God's love with each other and the community of faith, reaffirming the choice to continue to grow in faith as a family.

Parents are their children's first mentors in the faith

When parents practice their own personal religious faith, are involved in Parish Life and Sunday worship, share their faith with their children in conversation establish religious practices shared by the whole family, their children come to see the value of religious faith and personal spirituality. (Smith, Ritz, and Rotolo, 179).

Please join with other parents in the Holy Family Catholic Community in passing on our shared faith, by registering your children/teens in our Family and Teen Faith programs.

The Holy Family Job Support Group Ministry (HFJSG) has been very active all through the pandemic supporting and helping the unemployed, underemployed and those in transition. The HFJSG has been in existence for 35+ years. We have moved from the traditional meeting room at Holy Family, and have conducted 60 zoom meetings since March 2020. We are working with people locally and across the U.S. and in Canada!

These meetings are held every Saturday morning from 7:30 AM and end around 9:30 AM. We have had an average of 48 job seekers weekly on the call. Since the inception of the zoom calls we have hosted just under 3000 people (many returning visitors), and have had 75 people find jobs, or as we say, landings. The leadership of the group are volunteers who we call 24/7's and we assist people at any time with preparation of resumes, mock interviews, job postings and any other support that they need, which is outside the scheduled Saturday morning meetings.

In addition, under the umbrella of HFJSG, there are weekly workshops. In the first year of offering our four job search workshops, we have had 145 individuals taking approximately 310 workshop sessions. Using live Zoom sessions and Cloud recorded sessions has proven to be quite effective. The goal of the workshops include building confidence that job seekers are largely doing things right and helping them create a "good" plan that they can work with our 24/7 volunteers to create a "great" individualized plan. Across all our workshops, we stress the need to conduct a job search in community with others rather than in isolation. We look forward to moving back into the building once it's deemed safe by the Archdiocese.

Catholic Relief Services

I would like to invite you to be a part of an exciting initiative that Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is launching in its effort to end global poverty. CRS carries out the commitment of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist our brothers and sisters who experience poverty around the world. CRS' work is motivated by the Gospel of Jesus Christ and Catholic social teaching to uphold the sacredness and dignity of all human life and to foster charity and justice in the communities where CRS serves.

CRS wants to engage and empower thousands of people across the United States who desire to end global poverty, because they believe that, together, we can create transformative change around the world. To do this, CRS is building chapters across the country that will amplify our voice for global justice and empower us to take meaningful action (through advocacy work and community fundraising) that makes a big impact. Chapter members will not only be instrumental in advancing CRS' work to help those most in need around the world, but will also have unique opportunities to learn more about CRS' work, build community with others committed to the same mission, and hone their leadership skills through webinars and trainings.

If being part of a CRS chapter interests you, or if you would like to learn more, I invite you to join us on June 3rd, 2021 from 6-8 pm, for a virtual workshop, where you can learn more about CRS Chapters, meet others who are interested and discern whether joining a CRS chapter is the right fit for you. If you are interested or for more information, contact Sue at 847-907-3443 or sgeegan@holyfamilyparish.org.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
