Fr. Terry Keehan

Trinity not only guides our belief in the very nature of God, but it is one of three elements, along with our memory and real, authentic presence, that mark the next two weekends. Trinity – three persons and three concepts. We celebrate Trinity Sunday this weekend, Memorial Day on Monday and the Body and Blood of Christ next weekend.

Trinity

This is a very significant teaching, dogma and belief for us as Catholics, but not so for other denominations of Christianity. All Christians draw such significance in the New Testament. As Catholics we also ground so much of our belief in God from the Old Testament as well. As we are guided by scripture to reflect on the three-fold nature of God, may I call your attention to the first reading from Deuteronomy (4:38-40) during Mass this weekend:

“The Lord is God in the heavens above and the earth below and there is no other...that you may have ... a long life on the land which the Lord your God is giving you forever.”

This quote supports our belief in the first person of the Trinity, the one true God and the ongoing nature of our God referred to as the Holy Spirit, the part of our God that reaches and moves across time. The Gospel from Matthew (28:18) emphasizes that Jesus is not only our Savior, Messiah and the Son of God - He is the human manifestation of God - the second person of the Trinity. In it we hear Jesus telling us, “All power in heaven and earth has been given to me.” Mt 28:18

The first person of the Trinity gives ALL power to the second and the third perpetuates that power in our lives.

Memorial Day

This Monday we celebrate a federal holiday honoring and mourning heroes who have died performing their military duties. As I often quote Jack Nicholson portraying Col. Nathan Jessup in the 1992 Columbia Pictures film, A Few Good Men. In extolling the valor of our military Nicholson says, “Every day, you rest beneath the banner of freedom that I provide... I think the appropriate response is ‘Thank You.’ Thank you in our memory for the heroic men and women who have given their very lives to provide the banner of freedom that we rest beneath every day.

25 places have claimed to have originated the holiday. The debate falls under a North and South divide. The South claims it was first celebrated in Warrenton, Virginia 1861. The North claims it began in Gettysburg Pennsylvania 1863.

The Body and Blood of Christ

There is nothing like sharing and appreciating another person’s presence—their real presence, whether that be elated, anxious, sad, confident, enthused. Jesus knew that we all have an innate ability to recognize and feel another’s absence of presence, physically or emotionally. The Body and Blood of Christ draws us into Christ’s real, authentic presence every time we celebrate the Eucharist. More will follow next week.

Fr. Bob Heinz

Bob is not only one of my best friends, he has served the Archdiocese of Chicago so well as a priest at St. Ailbe on the south side, St. Mary Star of the Sea, St. James in Arlington Hts., St. Alphonsus in Prospect Heights, St. Norbert and Our Lady of the Brook in Northbrook and most recently at St. Mary of the Woods in the Edgebrook neighborhood of Chicago with Fr. Rich. He also served on the Priest Placement Board.

Bob has recently been appointed as the Administrator of our neighbor, St. Francis de Sales in Lake Zurich. His assignment there is temporary. He will be living here at Holy Family only temporarily as well. His full-time focus will be leading the administration of St. Francis de Sales so you won’t see him much, but if you happen to see him around, share a warm Holy Family welcome

Preparing for Next Week...

We invite you to read the scripture readings for June 6, The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, and then reflect on these questions:

Gene Garcia
Director of Liturgical Arts
847-907-3434
ggarcia@
holyfamilyparish.org

The Liturgical Arts Community... creates a vibrant prayer
and worship experience
so that all may participate in a fully conscious and active way in the liturgy. This includes different forms of prayer and
worship experiences,
for all attending Holy Family.

1. Today we sprinkle with water instead of blood. What does the sprinkling of water represent that is the same or different than the time of Moses?
2. We are blessed with the inheritance we have received as a result of Jesus' death and resurrection. What more can we do to prepare for our eternal inheritance while still here on earth?
3. During the consecration of the Holy Gifts at Mass, what moves you the most and why?
4. How can we keep the significance of the Eucharist alive when it could so easily become routine? Does your experience vary from week to week, or is it essentially the same?
5. Are there things you would recommend to enhance the Eucharistic experience at Holy Family?

SOCIAL JUSTICE QUESTION

What must you shed to be a more committed disciple of Christ? Do you give to those in need from your supply or your surplus?

Sunday 11:00am Mass

Our Sunday 11:00 am Mass will resume
every week beginning on June 6.

Please remember that you will still need to register to attend (via our website) until further notice.

Volunteer Opportunities

We have an urgent need for Ushers and Greeters for Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals! Weddings are on Friday evenings and Saturdays and are always scheduled in advance. Funerals are mid-morning and, obviously, not planned far in advance. Baptisms are scheduled in advance twice a month at 11:00 am on Sunday mornings during April and May and beginning in June the time will change to 1:00 pm.

You can sign up to serve for one ministry or multiple ministries.
For more information on this opportunity please visit the website.

Catholic Relief Services

I would like to invite you to be a part of an exciting initiative that Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is launching in its effort to end global poverty. CRS carries out the commitment of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist our brothers and sisters who experience poverty around the world. CRS' work is motivated by the Gospel of Jesus Christ and Catholic social teaching to uphold the sacredness and dignity of all human life and to foster charity and justice in the communities where CRS serves.

CRS wants to engage and empower thousands of people across the United States who desire to end global poverty, because they believe that, together, we can create transformative change around the world. To do this, CRS is building chapters across the country that will amplify our voice for global justice and empower us to take meaningful action (through advocacy work and community fundraising) that makes a big impact. Chapter members will not only be instrumental in advancing CRS' work to help those most in need around the world, but will also have unique opportunities to learn more about CRS' work, build community with others committed to the same mission, and hone their leadership skills through webinars and trainings.

If being part of a CRS chapter interests you, or if you would like to learn more, I invite you to join us on June 3rd, 2021 from 6-8 pm, for a virtual workshop, where you can learn more about CRS Chapters, meet others who are interested and discern whether joining a CRS chapter is the right fit for you. If you are interested or for more information, contact Sue at 847-907-3443 or sgeegan@holymfamilyparish.org.

Habitat for Humanity is back! We need volunteers.

Habitat's next project will be a new build in South Elgin and we'd like to begin construction this summer. If the CDC guidelines don't change between now and then, construction teams will be limited to only 10 people. Obviously, we will loosen those restrictions if and when the CDC does.

If you'd like to volunteer, email Larry Buettner at Larrybuettner@comcast.net and let him know with a short note your preference--Wednesday construction, Saturday construction or Saturday lunches. Also, let him know you are affiliated with Holy Family. Any questions, feel free to email Larry at the email address shown above.
