*"Let the children come to me;
do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.
Amen, I say to you,
whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.

AIG

You may hear more and more people referring to our yearlong Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage simply as AIG, short for Adventures in Grace. Our staff and some Grace Guides in the parish will be wearing buttons saying simply "Ask me about AIG". They are one more source of information about this important endeavor for you, if needed.

We are very grateful for the planning, hard work and creative collaboration that has led us to this point in the adventure on the part of Marsha Adamczyk, Mary Whiteside, Dennis Brown, Ro Geisler, Gene Garcia, Michael Patti and many others on our staff, along with Terry Nelson- Johnson, Laura Field and other Soul Play members. A special thanks to Laura Field who joined us for Mass last weekend, and special guest singer Tina Crawley who inspired us with her beautiful and powerful voice in song.

Terry Nelson-Johnson continues to recover from his recent health challenges, but we look forward to his guiding energy to kick off our Pilgrimage Adventures beginning the weekend of November 6 and 7 at all masses and on Wednesday, November 10. We will present an overview of the Sacramentality that is the groundwork and core from which the energy of grace ebbs and flows.

We will continue to present Pilgrimage information during the month of October beginning at all masses on October 10. On Wednesday October 20, at 7:00 pm in the church there will be a more detailed session providing additional information on preparation and intentionality.

Once again we want to encourage all participants to see that grace emanates from the 7 Sacraments but it also emanates from many other sacred moments and movements of our everyday life, often in unexpected and surprising ways. The titles of our 7 Sacraments are starting points for how Grace explodes in many other ways. This is an expression of the sacredness of life, this is truly a Pro-Life conviction that is essential to our mission here at Holy Family.

Bill Moorhead, Rest In Peace

Bill Moorhead has been a very active member of Holy Family for years. Bill entertained us with his love of priesthood and his pride in his Scottish heritage. He earned a Fulbright Scholarship in 1968, taught in Indonesia, and worked for the Chicago Public School system (CPS) for many years, retiring in 1995 as a CPS Principal. Bill was an avid traveler and a Certified Scottish Country Dance Instructor.

Bill passed away last week after an extended time in memory care. His wake service and burial have already taken place. We will remember Bill in a very simple yet prayerful way at our regular 9:00am Mass on Friday, October 22. Any friends of Bill are certainly welcome to join us in prayer that day.

Pet Blessing

If you were not able to attend our Animal Blessing led by our own Deacon Dennis this Saturday (coinciding with the feast of St. Francis of Assisi), trust that you can bless your pets personally and prayerfully ANYTIME.

Perhaps the following blessing can help:

"Blessed are you, Lord God,
Maker of all living creatures.
On the fifth and sixth days of creation,
you called forth fish in the sea,
birds in the air and animals on the land.
You inspired St. Francis to call all animals his brothers and sisters.
We ask you to bless these animals gathered about us.
By the power of your love,
enable these creatures—our sisters and brothers—to live according to your plan.
May we always praise you for your beauty in creation.
Blessed are you, Lord our God, in all your creatures! Amen."

GET READY!

That was the theme we conveyed last week's "Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage" information sessions held during Masses. For those who attended the session and were treated to a memorable vocal rendition of Curtis Mayfield's R&B classic, "People Get Ready", we hope you left informed, uplifted and excited to get onboard for our journey. For those who might have missed it (and we missed you!) you also missed a few familiar staff members sporting their "Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage" travel attire. Don't miss what might happen next! Here are a few quick reminders about upcoming dates:

October 10:

The next "Adventures in Grace" open information sessions during weekend Masses

November 7 and 10th:

Kickoff! Our program starts during weekend Masses followed by the first in a series of Wednesday evening "Adventures", focusing on sacramentality. Every Wednesday evening session will also be accessible virtually, but we really hope most of you will participate in the live experience as much as you can. There's nothing like it and nothing like shared camaraderie.

View the full updated itinerary at: www.holyfamilyparish.org/aig

The program is free of charge, all are welcome to join at any time, and you can participate in as many of the events and adventures as you choose. Our Family Faith and Holy Family Academy programs have all been updated to incorporate the "Adventures in Grace: a pilgrimage" agenda.

You can register on our website at: holyfamilyparish.org/aig and at the Travel Desk in the Narthex following weekend Masses. You can also reach out to Marsha Adamczyk, Mary Whiteside or any Holy Family staff member if you have questions or would like more information.

Happy Fall, and Get Ready!
Fr. Terry

Building Closed October 11-15 For Water Main Repairs

The building will be closed from Monday October 11 thru Friday October 15 as we reroute water service into the building. The repairs done in March revealed that our main is deteriorating at a rate faster than anticipated. Repairs will begin on Sept. 30, and some areas, like the front office, will be temporarily relocated during the construction.

Viator House of Hospitality

A Mohammed Moment: The call from Mohammed came at an odd time, right before dinner, and I thought, "Is he okay?" The answer? Yes. "Father," he said, calling from work. "My lawyer just called. I won my case!"

After danger forced him to leave his family in East Africa, after a deadly journey from South America to our southern border, after almost two years of wondering whether our nation would send him back.....Mohammed could relax.

A Jose Moment: Jose came back from his quick trip with a bounce in his step and a big smile. I was not surprised.

This young man from Central America, the first member of his large family to finish any level of school, now had an Oakton Community College student ID. Nervous about his new adventure, but confident after graduating high school in his third language, Jose now awaits his first day of college (as does Mohammed and two other recent VHH high school grads).

Two Moments You Helped Make Happen

Mohammed's asylum victory and Jose's educational success can be traced back to their courage and hard work, but also to you, our 70-plus volunteers (many of them tutors) and our 550-plus donors. Without you, there is no stable home where Mohammed can safely work on his legal case with his attorney and where Jose can study while dreaming about a college degree that will help him start his own business.

To learn more about Viator House of Hospitality, go to: <http://viatorhouseofhospitality.com>

There are many opportunities to serve these young men awaiting their asylum court dates. Are you feeling called to help?
